

FINAL REPORT FORM
for
WACC-SUPPORTED PROJECT

This document is for end-of-project reporting. It has two parts: a) Narrative Report; b) Financial Report.

You will need to refer to your Project Application Form, the Agreement with WACC, and your bank statement when completing this form. Please return it with supporting documents and materials to WACC. Please answer the questions as fully as possible.

THE NARRATIVE REPORT

1. Project Title: (as appeared in the Agreement)	Peace in Africa – Communication for Community Justice
2. Project Reference Number: (as appeared in the Agreement)	735
3. Full Name of Project Holder:	World Association for Christian Communication – Africa Region
4. Full Address:	24 Dunluce Avenue Claremont 7708
5. Name of Country:	South Africa
6. Period the project was implemented: (from month/year to month/year)	2-3 October 2008
7. Project Grant received:	Amount in local currency: ZAR29 527 Amount in US$3 525 (per R Cridlan)
8. Date(s) Project Grant(s) were received: (as in your bank statement) 1 st remittance 2 nd remittance	Dollars cash received 6.10.08

9. Activities : The seminar, which extended over two days, focussed on media reporting in South Africa and countries of the Great Lakes region. Delegates were present from South Africa, Malawi, Zambia, Kenya, Uganda, Cameroon, Sierra Leone, Ghana and Nigeria, in addition to local participants.

Mr John Allen, former Press Officer for Archbishop Desmond Tutu and the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission outlined the objectives, methods and outcomes of his and general media reporting in these two functions.

Two staffers from the Institute for Justice and Reconciliation made presentations on a Community Healing Project in South Africa, and the activities of the Institute's Africa programme.

In questions and subsequent reflection, which continued during the subsequent WACCAR Assembly, delegates sought to contextualise what they had learnt to their home contexts.

No Statement was issued and there are no plans or budget to publish material.

No equipment was purchased.

10. Was the project successful? (If possible, please give measurable indicators.)

Yes, The presentations were informative and relevant. Delegates participated fully in the plenary and group sessions.

During the past two months, delegates have been sharing information and experiences from their home contexts. This has resulted in increased Networking among WACCAR members, which has not been a recent feature.

11. Project Beneficiaries

The direct beneficiaries were the delegates themselves. The wider beneficiaries will be through the organisations they represented eg. All Africa Conference of Churches (Ms Catherine Ouma, Kenya) and Journalists for Christ (Lekan Otofundunrin, Nigeria and others

12. How have the beneficiaries reacted to the programme activities? What were the impacts of the project and different effects on women and men in the project?

See 10 para 3 above. Further information is awaited in the reporting and minutes from the regional secretary.

13. Outcome and Outputs of the project: What has your project achieved and what has changed?

No DVD's or publications were produced or are planned.

WACCAR Executive Committee members will be asked for photographs.

14. Evaluation

14.1 Due the subsequent holding of the Africa Assembly and WACC Global Congress, no formal evaluation was undertaken. Delegates will be canvassed in due course as a follow up activity.

14.2 A lack of organisation resources, for which the writer takes responsibility. Future seminars of this nature will not be held in conjunction with other major events such as Assembly and Congress.

15. Other comments, if any. WACCAR Executive members may wish to add further comments via e-mail.

16. Name of the person submitting the report: Rev Dave Wanless

Position: Treasurer – WACC Africa Region

Date: 3 December 2008

Signature:

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "David Wanless" followed by a small flourish.